The public meeting rooms are available on a first come-first serve basis. They are reserved for library use before any other group or individual. The Dodge City Public Library also reserves the right to re-arrange meeting room assignments for the most effective use of the spaces. Service animals are animals that are individually trained to perform tasks for people with disabilities such as guiding people who are blind, alerting people who are deaf, pulling wheelchairs, alerting and protecting a person who is having a seizure, or performing other special tasks. Service animals are working animals, not pets. The library staff may ask if an animal is a service animal or ask what tasks the animal has been trained to perform. The library staff may ask that a service animal be removed from the premises if (1) the animal is out of control and the animal's owner does not take effective action to control it or (2) the animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others.

Other animals including pets will not be allowed into the library unless the library is holding a program in which the owner of the animal and the animal or service animal is part of the program. Example: program on rescue animals or a program provided by a zoo. Library staff may have aquariums in their work areas if approved by the director.

Collection Development Policy

I. Purpose Statement

The collection development policy exists to guide librarians in selecting materials and to inform the public about the principles behind collection development decisions.

Collection development refers to the decision to add materials to the collection, retain materials already in the collection, withdraw materials from the collection, and choose materials for library programs, promotions, and professional development to increase both the quality and quantity of the entire collection.

Materials selected for the collection will meet both the current and long-term needs of Dodge City and area residents of all ages and abilities for information, education, culture, and recreation. The library staff strives to offer the widest possible range of subjects and views in varying formats and reading levels, within budget and space, and in consideration of current holdings and demand.

II. Material Selection Guidelines

- Must adhere to the library's mission statement and chosen roles for service.
- Must be of adequate cost to acquire and/or maintain the material.
- Merits of a work must be in relation to the needs and interests of the community.
- Must not attempt to duplicate the resources of larger research institutions.
- May meet the popular demand, particularly concerning books on bestseller lists for which there is persistent local demand.
- Professional reviews in periodicals and online may be used as a basis for evaluation in conjunction with publishers' catalogs and advertisements.
- Must meet the basic principles of the Library Bill of Rights, Freedom to Read and Freedom to View statements adopted by the American Library Association (ALA):
- <http://www.ala.org/advocacy/intfreedom/librarybill>

- <http://www.ala.org/advocacy/intfreedom/statementspols>
- Every effort will be made to represent all points of view.
- Purchasing materials for the collection does not include endorsement of their contents by the staff of the library.
- Patron suggestions for materials selection will be taken into consideration within the parameters of the Collection Development Policy, budget, and physical space.

III. Access

- Censorship is a purely individual matter. While an individual or group is free to reject material, no library staff person shall restrict access to the rest of the community.
- Selection of materials is not restricted by the possibility that children may obtain materials their parents may consider inappropriate. While materials are shelved by recommended age, patrons of any age may use materials in all sections of the library (see ALA Bill of Rights, Article V). Responsibility for children rests solely with their parents or legal guardians.

IV. Selection Responsibility

- Responsibility for collection development lies with librarians who apply professional knowledge, experience, and the criteria of this policy to making selection decisions for the library.
- Formats may include but not be limited to: fiction and non-fiction print materials for all ages, magazines and newspapers, DVDs, audiobooks, electronic content, and digital databases. Evolving formats will be identified and added as technology changes, reliability and availability improve and patron demand increases.

V. Collection Maintenance

- To ensure that the library's collection remains up-to-date and relevant to the community's needs, it is the responsibility of the selectors to reevaluate, on a regular basis, the usefulness of materials held in the collection.
- Selectors will remove materials from the collection as they become out-of-date, badly worn, damaged or are no longer being used. Space, cost of replacement, and appearance of the collection are also factors. Locally significant materials are not held to these standards and are generally retained. Materials withdrawn from the Dodge City Public Library may be sold in book sales or recycled.

VI. Reconsideration of Materials Procedure

- The Library Board recognizes that the diversity of the collection may offend some patrons that will result in complaints. While it is our wish to discuss the complaint with the patron and resolve the matter, the following procedure has been developed to hear those complaints in a formal session if needed:
 - The individual or group wishing to protest the presence of an item in the collection will contact the Director in writing. The Director, upon receiving the complaint, will send a written response to the complainant within ten (10) days of receipt.
 - If the complainant wishes to carry his/her objections further, a Reconsideration of Library Materials Request Form will be filled out and signed. The party making the complaint must be eligible to receive a Dodge City Public Library card and have read, listened to, or watched the entire material in question.

- The written complaint will be taken to the Library Board of Trustees at their regularly scheduled meeting. The complainant may appear before the Board if desired. The Board will reply within thirty (30) days in a written response. No item shall be removed from the library collection without a court order if the Board of Trustees and Director deem it appropriate for the collection. See Appendix 3 for Form.

VII. Gifts & Donations

- Gifts are vital to the establishment and growth of the Library. The Library retains unconditional ownership of any accepted gift. Any gift considered by the Library for inclusion into the Library's collection must meet the same selection criteria as purchased materials. The Library staff further reserves the right to decline gifts and to decide when a gift added to the collection will be withdrawn.
- Donations may include library materials and monetary gifts. Monetary gifts are extremely useful in supplementing the Library's budget. Gifts may be given to be used at the discretion of Library Administration for programs and services currently in greatest need. While gifts are not accepted with stipulations, Library staff will consider the interests of the donors in determining how to use monetary gifts that may be designated by the donor for specific purposes within the library's programming, collection, and services criteria.
- Gifts are tax-deductible but Library staff may not set fair market or appraisal values for donated materials. Receipts are available upon request.
- Materials may be donated only in formats that are also available in the library including but not limited to: print books, unabridged audiobooks on CD, and DVDs. Donations of magazine subscriptions can be designated by either the donor or the library staff.
- Materials with the following conditions will not be accepted:
 - Moldy/musty with strong odor or water damage
 - Dirty (greasy, food stained, insect infested, etc.)
 - Marked by pens, pencils, crayons or highlighters
 - Physically damaged (i.e. broken bindings, loose/torn pages, or damaged covers/cases)
- The library is unable to accept:
 - Textbooks/Medical books
 - Condensed Books (for example, Readers Digest Condensed Books) or abridged audiobooks.
 - Nonfiction titles over five-years-old
